The Full Monty

Sunday, February 7, 2010

The Warner Theatre has undergone extensive restoration of the lobbies and auditorium. Today, this beautiful theater is one of twelve remaining art deco theaters in the northeast. It is on the National Register of Historic Landmarks and produces critically acclaimed stage plays and shows featuring top-star entertainers. Today's feature is the Tony winner The Full Monty.

The Full Monty is a musical about six unemployed Buffalo steelworkers, low on both cash and prospects, who decide to present a strip act at a local club after seeing their wives' enthusiasm for a touring company of Chippendales. In the process of perfecting their dance act (to the thump of a wonderfully incongruous disco beat), these lovable lugs learn a thing or two about masculinity. As they prepare for the show, working through their fears, self-consciousness and anxieties, they overcome their inner demons and find strength in their camaraderie.

Before the show, we'll dine at the new Cambridge House Brew Pub, adjoining the Warner Theatre. It's owners sought to combine the look of a classic English pub with the casual, "everybody-knows-your-name" ambience of a neighborhood place. In other words, you'll feel at home here. Unlike some brew pubs, the chef at The Cambridge House plays second fiddle to no one.
